Product manager with eight years in fintech, most recently running card payments at a Series C issuer. I take messy, regulated problems (chargebacks, fraud rules, failed payments) and turn them into products that cut cost and keep customers. Happiest with a small team and a clear number to move.

EXPERIENCE

MAR 2022 - PRESENT
LONDON

Senior Product Manager, Card Payments

Northwind Pay

- Led a squad of seven through a rebuild of disputes handling; chargeback losses fell 38% in nine months and the process moved from spreadsheets into the product.
- Launched real-time spend controls used by 61% of active customers within a quarter, now the most-cited reason in sales win notes.
- Raised authorisation rate from 94.1% to 97.3% by working with Visa and our processor on retry logic and decline-code handling.

JUN 2018 - FEB 2022
LONDON

Lumen Health

Product Manager, Checkout

JAN 2020 - FEB 2022

- Owned checkout and subscriptions; moved recurring payments to a new provider with zero lost subscribers across 140,000 accounts.
- Cut failed-payment churn by 22% with smart retries and a card-update flow, worth about £1.1m a year in kept revenue.

Associate Product Manager

JUN 2018 - DEC 2019

- Shipped NHS login for repeat prescriptions, lifting sign-up completion from 41% to 63%.

SEP 2016 - MAY 2018
MANCHESTER

Business Analyst

Brightline Logistics

- Built the first carrier-cost model in SQL and Looker, which found £400k a year in duplicate invoices.
